CDI announces a strategic partnership with SBTech to utilize their integrated technology platform

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 16, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Churchill Downs Incorporated ("CDI") (Nasdaq:CHDN) today announced its entry into real money online gaming ("iGaming") and sports betting markets. It also announced a strategic partnership agreement with SBTech to utilize their integrated technology platform for CDI's iGaming and sports betting operations. SBTech will provide CDI with an iGaming platform, consisting of the consumer website, mobile apps, and back office systems to manage iGaming and sports wagering, where permitted, pursuant to which CDI may offer branded products separate from TwinSpire.com to its iGaming and sports betting customers.

The strategic partnership with SBTech initially is intended to enable CDI to enter New Jersey and Pennsylvania, which have already approved iGaming and sports betting. In addition, the strategic partnership will enable CDI to enter Mississippi for sports wagering. CDI and SBTech's entry into these states is subject to gaming license approvals and finalization of iGaming and sports betting regulations.

- In New Jersey, CDI has announced an agreement with Golden Nugget to enter the New Jersey iGaming and sports betting markets.
- In Pennsylvania, CDI previously announced the acquisition of Presque Isle Downs & Casino ("Presque Isle") in Erie, Pennsylvania from Eldorado Resorts, Inc. ("Eldorado"). The definitive purchase agreement between CDI and Eldorado for the acquisition of Presque Isle requires Eldorado to apply for certain iGaming licenses, subject to reimbursement by CDI at closing, if the exclusive time periods to acquire Pennsylvania iGaming licenses are expected to expire prior to the closing of the Presque Isle acquisition.
- In Mississippi, CDI has two existing brick-and-mortar casinos that will be utilized to offer on-property sports betting products.

"We are confident that our strategic partnership with SBTech provides us with an industry leading platform to offer innovative and exciting, integrated iGaming and sports betting products," said Bill Carstanjen, CEO of Churchill Downs. "We have the unique opportunity to leverage our knowledge and experience operating the largest legal online horse racing wagering business in the U.S. as we enter the iGaming and sports betting markets."

"We are thrilled to be partnering with Churchill Downs and to introduce our award-winning iGaming and sports betting platforms in the U.S.," said Richard Carter, Chief Executive Officer of SBTech. "We both share a deep commitment to technological innovation and excellence, and we look forward to working with them during this exciting time in the history of the U.S. gaming market."
