Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains various “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the “Act”) provides certain “safe harbor” provisions for forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the Act.

The reader is cautioned that such forward-looking statements are based on information available at the time and/or management’s good faith belief with respect to future events, and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual performance or results to differ materially from those expressed in the statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statement was made. We assume no obligation to update forward-looking information to reflect actual results, changes in assumptions or changes in other factors affecting forward-looking information. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by the use of terms such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “might,” “plan,” “predict,” “project,” “hope,” “should,” “will,” and similar words, although some forward-looking statements are expressed differently. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, we can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct.

Forward-Looking Statements (cont'd)

Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from expectations include: the effect of global economic conditions, including any disruptions in the credit markets; a decrease in consumers' discretionary income; the effect (including possible increases in the cost of doing business) resulting from future war and terrorist activities or political uncertainties; the overall economic environment; the impact of increasing insurance costs; the impact of interest rate fluctuations; the effect of any change in our accounting policies or practices; the financial performance of our racing operations; the impact of gaming competition (including lotteries, online gaming and riverboat, cruise ship and land-based casinos) and other sports and entertainment options in the markets in which we operate; our ability to maintain racing and gaming licenses to conduct our businesses; the impact of live racing day competition with other Florida, Illinois and Louisiana racetracks within those respective markets; the impact of higher purses and other incentives in states that compete with our racetracks; costs associated with our efforts in support of alternative gaming initiatives; costs associated with customer relationship management initiatives; a substantial change in law or regulations affecting pari-mutuel and gaming activities; a substantial change in allocation of live racing days; changes in Kentucky, Florida, Illinois or Louisiana law or regulations that impact revenues or costs of racing operations in those states; the presence of wagering and gaming operations at other states' racetracks and casinos near our operations; our continued ability to effectively compete for the country's horses and trainers necessary to achieve full field horse races; our continued ability to grow our share of the interstate simulcast market and obtain the consents of horsemen's groups to interstate simulcasting; our ability to enter into agreements with other industry constituents for the purchase and sale of racing content for wagering purposes; our ability to execute our acquisition strategy and to complete or successfully operate planned expansion projects; our ability to successfully complete any divestiture transaction; market reaction to our expansion projects; the inability of our totalisator company, United Tote, to maintain its processes accurately, keep its technology current or maintain its significant customers; our accountability for environmental contamination; the ability of our online business to prevent security breaches within its online technologies; the loss of key personnel; the impact of natural and other disasters on our operations and our ability to obtain insurance recoveries in respect of such losses (including losses related to business interruption); our ability to integrate any businesses we acquire into our existing operations, including our ability to maintain revenues at historic levels and achieve anticipated cost savings; the impact of wagering laws, including changes in laws or enforcement of those laws by regulatory agencies; the outcome of pending or threatened litigation; changes in our relationships with horsemen's groups and their memberships; our ability to reach agreement with horsemen's groups on future purse and other agreements (including, without limiting, agreements on sharing of revenues from gaming and advance deposit wagering); the effect of claims of third parties to intellectual property rights; and the volatility of our stock price.

Racing Operations Adjusted EBITDA has grown despite industry declines

Derby Week, Night Racing & Productivity have increased margin rates

($ in millions)

2012 v 2010

- Wagering on U.S. Thoroughbreds in 2012 was up 1% Y/Y, first total year increase since 2006
 - 2012 U.S. Industry still down 20% from 2008 according to The Jockey Club Online Fact Book
 - September 2013 YTD industry handle is flat on 2% fewer live race days
- Despite Industry weakness, Racing Operations Adjusted EBITDA has grown consistently driven by the strength of The Kentucky Derby, innovations like Night Racing, and a focus on cost productivity

Racing Operations profitability is driven by The Kentucky Oaks & Derby

Racing Operations Adjusted EBITDA by Quarter

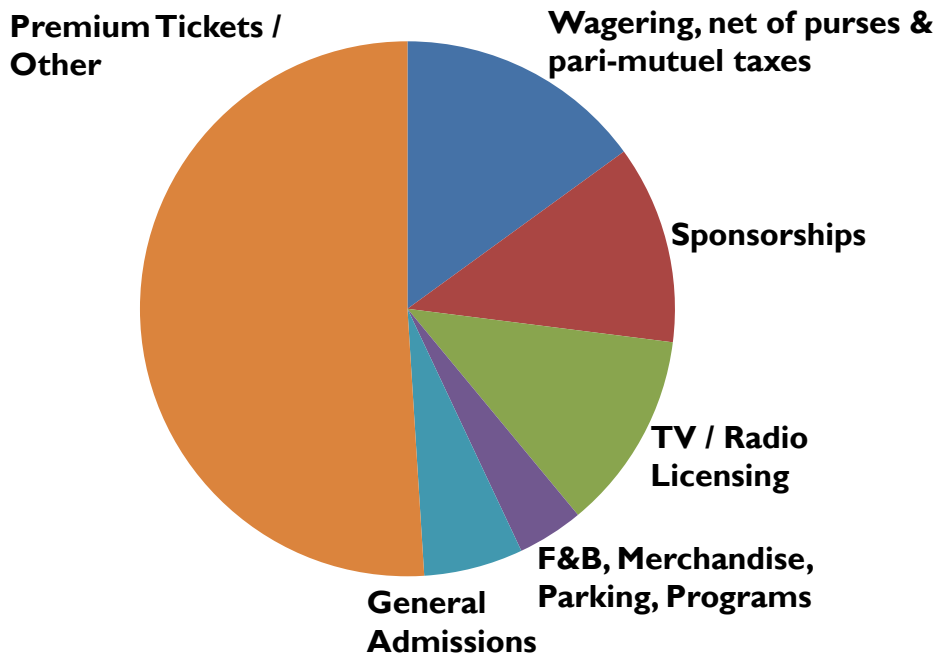

- The Kentucky Derby always occurs on “The First Saturday of May” (our 2nd quarter)
- Derby Week Profitability has proven resilient through economic cycles, up ~ $21 mil. over the last four years
 - 2010 Adjusted EBITDA up $3.4 mil. Y/Y
 - 2011 Adjusted EBITDA up $6.4 mil. Y/Y
 - 2012 Adjusted EBITDA up $5.4 mil. Y/Y
 - 2013 Adjusted EBITDA up $5.8 mil. Y/Y

The Kentucky Oaks & Derby profits come from many sources

A significant portion of Derby Week Profits happen before the event takes place

Sources of Derby Week Profitability
(Illustrative Approximations)

- ❑ Premium tickets is the largest Adjusted EBITDA contributor to profitability
 - ~55,000 reserved seats sold in advance, typically sold out in the early part of the year
 - Includes 77 permanent suites which are under 3 to 7 year contracts with staggered expirations
 - Demand for premium tickets exceeds supply
 - Attendance set all-time records in both 2011 & 2012, near record in 2013 for Kentucky Oaks
 - New high-end seating venues added in 2013 with the “Mansion” and “Plaza Balcony”
- ❑ Wagering profits are impacted by the weather and the strength of the field (a strong favorite hurts wagering)
- ❑ NBC Sports TV agreement was renewed in 2011
 - 5 year agreement expires after the 2015 Derby
 - Increased economics compared to the prior deal
 - 2013 was the 2nd most watched Derby in 24 years
 - Only annual sporting event that draws more female viewers (52%) than male
- ❑ Yum! Brands presenting sponsor agreement renewed in 2011
 - 5 year agreement expires after the 2015 Derby
 - Increased economics compared to the prior deal
- ❑ Longines, Swiss watchmaker, expands relationship as Entitlement Partner of the Kentucky Oaks in 2013

The Kentucky Derby has proven resilience to economic weakness

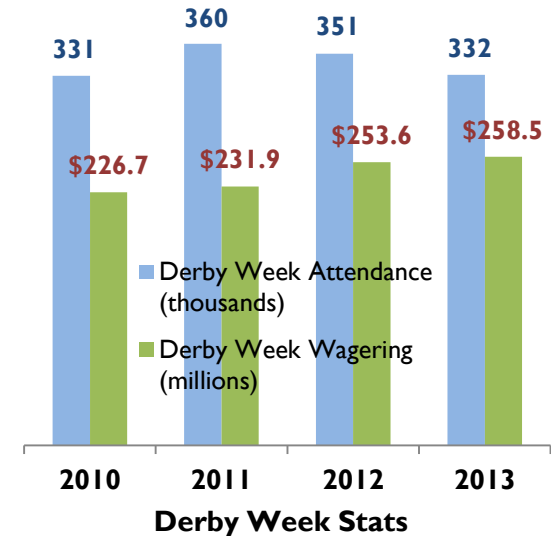

2013 Derby Week results prove the resiliency and brand power of this iconic entertainment event

KENTUCKY OAKS 139

Kentucky gaming expansion provides significant upside opportunity

Legislative session begins in January with alternative gaming as a major topic

Commentary

- Kentucky Wins! Was created by a group of business leaders to change the debate on expanded gaming in the Commonwealth
- Launched in October, 2013 this organization continues to build momentum heading into the 2014 legislature session
- Three main goals
 - Change the narrative to “Create jobs and revenue for Ky”
 - Show grass roots support of “letting the people decide”
 - Organize a critical mass of business, community and civic leaders to provide cover for politicians to address the issue
- Over 60 business, community and political leaders have signed up as Executive Board members, over 43,000 Facebook “Likes” (Gov. Steve Beshear has ~5,000)
- The Kentucky Constitution requires that the Kentucky General Assembly pass a Constitutional Amendment with 60% approval in both the House & Senate
- House Pro Tem. Larry Clark pre-filed an expanded gaming constitutional amendment and enabling legislation Nov 20th allowing a total of 8 casinos with 5 locations for racetracks protected by a 50 mile radius
- Spectrum gaming released a study dated January 17, 2012 showing Churchill Downs location annual revenues could exceed $250 million (Horseshoe Southern Indiana produces ~$270 million)
- Should an amendment pass the assembly in 2014, it would be voted on by the public in November 2014

Illinois gaming expansion also provides significant upside

Legislation debate expected to commence once pension reform is completed

Commentary

- Attractive location .. Arlington Heights is a suburb of Chicago, the commercial hub of the Midwest and 3rd largest metropolitan area in the United States
 - ~9 miles from Des Plaines Casino ($759 win per unit in 2011 according to Wells Fargo research)
 - Train station on property
 - Chicago 2012 population: 7,318,387¹
 - Chicago median household income: $47,371²
- Illinois Senate passed latest version of gaming expansion, SB 1739, in May 2013, sponsored by Sen. Terry Link
- SB 1739 would allow 5 new casinos, including one in Chicago and permit slot machines at racetracks
- Bill would allow for Class III gaming at racetracks including 1,200 at Arlington Park
- Governor Quinn has softened his opposition to expansion of gaming in recent comments, focusing his energy on a strict regulatory regime and ethical standards for racinos and the proposed Chicago casino
- SB 1739 is pending in the Illinois House, and is expected to see action as soon as the Governor and legislative leaders come to agreement on a solution for the Illinois pension crisis. Due to the overwhelming budget problems in Illinois, we expect both of these issue to be resolved in the very near future.

Online Business has grown organically as customers shift wagering behavior

The Online channel is growing despite industry declines

- Online wagering has grown ~8% to ~14% faster than the industry, as customers continue to shift wagering channels due to convenience, accessibility and ease of use
- In 1H 2013, Twinspires.com stopped taking wagers from IL customers as online wagering legislation expired. Excluding IL handle for both periods, online handle increased 6% - outpacing industry by 6.8%
- Twinspires.com resumed online wagering in IL on June 7, 2013 after IL legislators and the Governor passed a new bill to allow online wagering on horseracing
- Churchill well positioned to continue growing & gaining market share from better technology, innovation and ability to offer integrated data
