Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously disclosed, on February 28, 2018, Churchill Downs Incorporated (“CDI”) announced that it had entered into two separate definitive asset purchase agreements with Eldorado Resorts, Inc. (“ERI”) and certain of its subsidiaries to acquire substantially all of the assets and properties used in connection with the operation of Presque Isle Downs & Casino in Erie, Pennsylvania (the “Presque Isle Transaction”), and Lady Luck Casino in Vicksburg, Mississippi (the “Lady Luck Vicksburg Transaction”) for total aggregate consideration of approximately $229.5 million, to be paid in cash, subject to certain working capital and other purchase price adjustments. The Presque Isle Transaction and Lady Luck Vicksburg Transaction are collectively known as the “Pending Transactions”.

The Pending Transactions are dependent on usual and customary closing conditions, including the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the “HSR Act”). Closing of the Presque Isle Transaction is also conditioned on the closing of the Lady Luck Vicksburg Transaction.

On May 7, 2018, each of CDI and ERI received a request for additional information and documentary material (a “Second Request”) pursuant to the HSR Act from the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”) in connection with the FTC’s review of the pending Lady Luck Vicksburg Transaction. The Second Request extends the waiting period imposed by the HSR Act until 30 days after CDI and ERI have substantially complied with the Second Request, unless that period is extended voluntarily by the parties or terminated sooner by the FTC.

Both CDI and ERI will respond as quickly as practicable and continue to work cooperatively with the FTC in connection with its review of the Lady Luck Vicksburg Transaction. The Pending Transactions are expected to close during the second half of 2018.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains various “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the “Act”) provides certain “safe harbor” provisions for forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K are made pursuant to the Act. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by the use of terms such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “might,” “plan,” “predict,” “project,” “seek,” “should,” “will,” and similar words, although some forward-looking statements are expressed differently. These statements involve substantial known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause CDI’s actual plans and results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, the risks and uncertainties associated with the timing, conditions and receipt of regulatory approvals and satisfaction of other closing conditions in connection with the Pending Transactions; unexpected costs relating to the Pending Transactions; disruption of management time from ongoing business operations due to the Pending Transactions; adverse effects on the market price of CDI’s common stock relating to announcements regarding the Pending Transactions; potential adverse reactions or changes to business or employee relationships, including those resulting from the announcement or completion of the Pending Transactions; and the risk factors set forth in CDI’s filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, and subsequent reports filed with the SEC. Forward-looking statements should be considered in light of these risks and uncertainties and speak only as of the date the statements were made. Except as required by law, CDI assumes no obligation to update forward-looking information to reflect actual results, changes in assumptions or changes in other factors affecting forward-looking information.
